ATHLETICS' BINGLES COUNT.

Collins and Baker Manufacture Winning Tallies.

PHILADELPHIA. May 28 .- The Athletics defeated St. Louis in the last home game before the invasion of Western territory by the score of 3 to 1. Baumgardner was not hit hard but a base on balls, Collins's triple and Baker's sacrifice fly counted two runs in the first inning and Baker poled the ball over the right field wall in the fourth inning for the third run of the game. Mitchell relieved Baumgardner the fourth inning for the third run of the game. Mitchell relieved Baumgardner in the sixth after the latter had hurt his hand in stopping Oldring's drive. Bill Orr, utility infielder of the Athletics, has been released to Sacramento. The score:

DOUBLE BILL IN NEW YORK

Terrapins Sour at Treatment of Smith-Player Said to Be Scapegoat.

Greater New York will have a chance to surfeit for the rest of the week upon the very best baseball that can be provided. Both Giants and Athletics, who fought for the world's title last fall, will week end in our midst. McGraw's cham-pions and Wilbert Robinson's hopefuls returned last night from the West. This afternoon at Ebbets Field they will begin their third series of the season. Connie their third series of the season. Connie Mack's demons are to meet the Chancemen in a double header at the Polo Grounds meanwhile. There will be two games at each park to-morrow.

McGraw returned more hopeful of a fourth consecutive pennant than when he set out upon his first swing through the West. Before the Giants laid slege to Pittsburg Fred Clarke's team had swept the Western wing of the league before it. New York took three games in a row from the Smoky City players and yanked them back to within striking distance. Though New York has gained very little on the leaders since quitting Forbes Field the champions will soon have the distinct advantage of a long stretch of home symvantage of a long stretch of home sympathy. Soon is will be the turn of the Western clubs to visit all the Eastern towns and then McGraw hopes to step out

According to Jack Dunn of the Balti-more Internationals, the Federal League players of his town are anything but de-lighted with the severe punishment that was handed out to Pitcher Frank Smith for trying to jump back to Montreal. Smith was fined $100 and suspended for forty-flye days.

'Figure it out for yourself." said Dunn. "That means a thousand dollars or more lopped from the pitcher's salary. It's over a quarter of his salary besides the extra hundred, and the Federal League paid mighty high salaries for such old time stars as Smith. Some of Smith's teammates have insinuated that this stiff punishment was simply a pretext to trim Smith's pay and that the owners went just a trifle too far."

From what appears a fairly authentic source comes an inside story that this same Smith was the unfortunate victim of circumstances. It is said that after he had his runin with Otto Knabe the piano mover volunteered to test the attitude of organized baseball toward the players, who had described to the Ederal players who had deserted to the Federal League. The story goes that practically all of the former International League players would have jumped back if Smith had been welcomed to the Royals. These players are forced to stick with the Federal cause, for the National Association, which controls all minor leagues, has gone on record as opposed to the return of all contract jumpers.

It is a well known fact that several Federal players who jumped from the players who had deserted to the Federal

It is a well known fact that several Federal players who jumped from the major leagues have tried to sound the attitude of the National Commission to-ward them. gone on record against major league deserters. It is believed that the triumvirate is anxiously awaiting a favorable decision in the case of August Herrmann against Pitcher Johnson. The solons of organized baseball have been mighty perky ever since Ban Johnson returned to Chicago from his gumshoe trip through the East. If the courts hold valid the 1914 contract, which embraces the reserve clause, it would surprise nobody if the two major leagues demanded of the courts the services of all American and National League reserve jumpers.

H. P. Whitney's Meeting House Justifies Faith in First Local Appearance.

BELMONT PARK, L. I., May 28 .- Capt.

Jockey Davies got Flying Fairy away in a good position and before the horses had travelled a quarter of a mile she had a comfortable lead. The four-year-old Tarts appeared to be her most dangerous opponent when the flying brigade started down the homestretch. For the last furlong Davies was hard at work on Flying Fairy trying to head off the challenge of Tarts. Then on the outside swept up J. G. Oxnard's Cadeau, which had got away hadly and had persist. # TOM SEATON BREAKS AT LAST.

Buffeds Force Him to Cover and

Beat Tip Tops 7 to 2. Burrato, May 28.—The Buffeds ham-mered Tom Seaton hard in the fourth to-day and in the sixth drove him from the mound with clean drives that netted plenty of runs to win. The score was 7 to 2. The score:

E. B. Cassatt's Flying Fairy won the Ladies' Handicap, which was the feature of the Westchester Racing Association card to-day, in a thrilling finish. The Cassatt entry carried the top weight of 126 pounds and was opposed by a good class field of eleven, including Addie M., which finished third in the Futurity last fall.

BOTH WINNERS HAVE HARD ROWS TO HOE

Mrs. McLean Exerted to Defeat Miss Wildey by Score of 6-4, 10-8.

MRS. MILES ANNOYED TOO

But Steadiness in Crises Gives Her Success, Mrs. Weaver Losing, 6-4, 7-8, 8-6.

WEST ORANGE, May 28 .- Mrs. Marshall McLean, Jersey State and metropolitan title holder, and Mre Alfred G. Miles reached the final round in the women's singles of the invitation lawn tennis tournament at the courts of the Essex County Country Club here to-day. Both of the finalists experienced plenty of difficulty in moving out, for while Mrs. McLean won in straight sets from Miss Edna Wildey, she did so only by the scant margin of 6-4, 10-8. Mrs. Miles was forced to go three sets to dispose of Mrs. S. F. Weaver, former Jersey State champion, at 6-4, 7-9, 8-6. Mrs. Weaver lacked only a point of win-

Mirs. Weaver lacked only a point of winning three different times in the third set of her match, but she seemed to lack the punch in the critical places, and Mrs.
Miles, who played an exceptionally steady game, was invariably at her best when she was in danger of losing.
As a result of the day's play in the doubles the semi-final brackets were filled.
The summaries.

The summaries: Women's Invitation Singles, Semi-final Round—Mrs. Alfred G. Miles defeated Mrs. S. F. Weaver, 6—4, 7—9, 8—6; Mrs. Marshall McLean defeated Miss Edna Wildey, 6—4, 10—8. McLean defeated Miss Edna Wildey, 6—4, 16—5.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND.

Ebbets pere and Ebbets fils are doing about equally well as magnates. The Brooklyns have a percentage of .483 and the Newarks of .481.

Considering that Matty broke his arm in a fight with Plez in Marlin, that he went out to St. Louis to manage the Cardinals and that Merkle. Marquard and Grant have just been traded off, the Glants are doing pretty well.

The Clevelands found thin nourishment in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but the scrod and beans diet suited them. Chase beat Collins out of a hit by running to third while Maisel was beating down collins's victous drive. The latter couldn't have been thrown out at first, but Maisel tagged Chase for the third out before Cellins could reach the first bag.

For the second time this year a game has been cut short in Washington to allow a team to catch a train for Boston. The Washingtons lost both times. There's a way out of this for Griff. Have Boston move nearer to Washington.

The Detroit team hasn't beaten Walter Johnson since May, 1912.

A new outfielder, Shag Thompson, from the University of North Carolina, has joined the
